Director

Leilani – Marjorie Claus

Leilani Cartledge made her acting debut in 2017 on several stages throughout the DMV area followed by a TV appearance in the crime re-enactment drama, For My Man. Since then, she has continued gracing the stage in several theater productions. She has also spent time in front of the camera for student and feature films. Leilani is a native of Washington DC and spends her free time reading a good book, studying the works of her favorite actors, and continuing to network with other creatives in film and theater.

Cast

Alvin Barillo – Rudolph

Alvin joins us with his first stage appearance for the Thunderous family. He took acting class at Stagecoach theater in Ashburn, VA. His first main role is Rudolph from North Polarized. Acting is a hobby he enjoys. The dream roles he wants to pursue in the future are action movies (including fighting stunts) and dance (mainly hip-hop).

Annie Chestnut Vixen is

Annie's theatrical debut after an over decade-long hiatus. She got the bug to pursue acting after taking short-form improv classes at DC Improv. Annie works in public policy and leads dynamic wine tastings at a vineyard and winery in Virginia.

Cast

Andrew Enriquez - Blitzen

Andrew Enriquez started acting in North Idaho community theaters and ended up dancing ballet to round out his teen years. In the last two decades, Andrew has been involved in big film projects in tiny ways and tiny film projects in big ways. You can usually catch him in Nutcrackers come December, and North Polarized is his second production with Thunderous, appearing as Alfred Doolittle in 2022's Pygmalion.

Bella Levy - Jeri the Banker

Bella Levy is a product of the "American Dream". Her Russian roots have given way to develop a desire for change and help humanity. She is a Radiology "SuperSHEro" in scrubs in our community fighting the Covid war in multiple local hospital facilities. She's creator of the "Blue Ribbon Project", focusing on Awareness, Education, and Prevention methods of Human Trafficking. She has participated in an Oscar nominated film that will be recognized this February. Bella also won an award for best supporting actress in the DMV and serves as a consultant for films focused around human trafficking. Her passion is to serve and help humanity.

Cast

Porto Muchimba - Ms Buzzlebee ,

Porto was born in Lusaka, Zambia She obtained certificates in Theatre at Molholland Academy & the Department of Acting. Porto has been in a few short films and TV series within Zambia & Europe. Acting & film is indeed a big part of her life, thus she attended film & acting school in the Netherlands. She is a newcomer to the Thunderous family. She currently resides in Bethesda MD.

Ricky Green - Santa

Ricky is a native of Baltimore, now residing in Phoenix, Md. He attended St Mary's College of Md where he first tried theatre classes and caught the bug for the performing arts. However, he also had a greater personal commitment to our country and enlisted in the US military and served in the USAF over 30 years, retiring as a Lieutenant Colonel. He currently attends acting classes with Acting with Max (AWM) Studios in Towson, where he continues to sharpen his acting skills. Ricky has performed in support roles in two films and a commercial and currently is casted for a student film at Stevenson University in Owings Mills, Md and is also recently cast for our next play here with Howard County Performing Arts Theatre this spring.
